

Imparting Blessings on Our Children

Matthew 19:13-15

- There are four Goals for parents.
 1. To enjoy their children.
 2. To raise children that is a joy to be with and blessings to those around them.
 3. To raise children who are well-prepared for life (9 Spiritual Principles).
 4. To be used mightily by God.

- God planned for life and blessings to be imparted to His children through the spoken blessing.
 1. The Old Testament fathers expected their blessings to be fulfilled in the lives of their children.
 2. God used the spoken blessing personally to impart divine favor to His people.
 3. Jesus began His three-year training program with His disciples by speaking a series of blessings over their lives (Matt. 5:1-6).
 4. Isaac blessed his sons Jacob and Esau (Gen. 27).
 5. Moses taught Aaron and sons to speak blessings over God's people each time they meet (Num. 6:22-26).

- The record is endless throughout the Bible of blessings being spoken over the people of God.
 1. The value of your child (Psalm 127:3).
 - A. Children are: (1) God's heritage; (2) God's arrows; and (3) Our reward.
 - B. No one can place a value on your children.
 - C. Satan sees covenant children as the greatest threat to his plans.
 - D. Failing to impart to children the blessings of God help to assure Satan that he can foil or abort God's plans for them.
 - E. Child – a sign of the covenant.
